

for the entire hunting season or unexpired portion thereof for which the license is issued.

(b) Ten dollars for a license to shoot three days only on days to be specified in the application and in the license, and three dollars for each additional day.

For three days to be specified, $10, and $3 for each additional day.

To a resident of the State of North Carolina upon payment of:

Residents.

(c) One dollar for a license to shoot for all or any part of any hunting season.

For season, $1.

(d) Five dollars for a license to shoot and act as guide for all or any part of any hunting season.

To act as guide, $5.

SEC. 3. To those owning property in Dare County bought and used for the shooting of migratory waterfowl and who desire to have any well established shooting point or location protected by license as such:

Application of property owner for establishment of shooting point.

(a) The applicant shall accurately describe the location of same.

Description of location.

(b) The charge for the license shall be twenty-five dollars for a season or any part thereof.

Fee for season, $25.

(c) Application must be filed on or before October first in each year to insure timely consideration.

Application filed before October 1.

(d) The license tag, to be supplied with the license, must, during the shooting season be displayed on the blind erected on such "Licensed Shooting Point," which blind must be maintained and used with a reasonable frequency.

License tag must be displayed.

(e) If it is desired to develop a new shooting location, the board may, on application, license any location designated but not if it has been generally used by floating devices.

Licensing of new locations.

To residents of the State of North Carolina for batteries:

(a) The charge of a battery license in Dare County shall be twenty-five dollars. The license number shall be plainly painted on the battery boat and battery.

Battery licenses to residents. Fee of $25.

License number to be displayed.

(b) For the better protection of game which would be driven from the waters of the sounds and tributaries by the operation of an excessive number of batteries, the clerk of the Superior Court, whenever licenses granted for batteries have totalled thirty in any season, shall not issue more licenses for that season.

Not more than thirty batteries to be licensed in one season.

(c) Priority in the granting of battery licenses in any season shall be given for those owned and operated during the seasons of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, or replacements thereof, so long as the application for a license is each year hereafter made not later than October fifteenth. After such date, priority shall be given in the order of the date of application as evidenced by list to be kept up to date by the clerk of the Superior Court, and which shall be open for inspection to the Priority in issuing battery licenses.

Those owned during last two years if application made before October 15.

After such date priority to be upon basis of date of application.